

Resistance District XIII Herning. RAF/SOE weapon dropping places 1944-1945.

Map showing dropping places in the Herning area. Each place had a number and a name, see following lists. Names and map were illegally sent to SOE in London. At the SOE HQ in Baker Street it was decided what place to use. Secret messages were sent to the Resistance by BBC Radio during the evening sending. Such as: 'Greeting to Jeppe'. It was message for the group with place No. 18.

○ Dropping place. ● German Radar. ▲ Eureka transmitter. ● German telephone house.