

Tools used by groups in the field at dropping place when weapons came down from a RAF/SOE weapon planes.

Weapon containers have arrived to the first dump. A man from the Movement is unpacking ammunition and explosives. After doing this the materiel was packed and prepared for transport to the resistance- and sabotage groups around the country.

Northern Jutland, spring 1945. A room under the ceiling at Arthur Madsens place near Ranum. Resistance group has received British weapons. Here men from the Movement are cleaning and making the guns ready for use: Bren gun, Steen-gun and Enfield rifle and a lot of ammunition.