

Date	5/6 Nov. 1941	Service No.	Rank	Name	Duty
Type of Aircraft	Hampden Mk. I	87064	(Plt. Off.) Flg. Off.	Hartley, S.	Pilot	Esbjerg
Serial No.	AD850	902192	Flt. Sgt.	Ward, A.E.	Nav.	Esbjerg
Squadron	No. 83	1162559	Sgt.	Cotterell, N.I.	WOp.	Esbjerg
Code Letters	OL : L	905119	(Sgt.) Flt. Sgt.	Turner, R.B.	AG	Esbjerg
Base	Scampton, Lincs.
Mission	Gardening
Target	Kiel Bay
Special Remarks: Left 01.05 hrs. 6th
That bodies of Hartley and Ward were washed up on Danish coast was known later by squadron.		Diary of Commander-in-Chief of the German Naval Forces in Denmark On 6 November 1941 at 0628 hrs. an enemy aircraft hit by light flak from vessel "5" at Skalling Ende. Wreckage of Bristol Beaufort type aircraft found on the beach between Hvidding and Rejsby, apparently the aircraft which was damaged at Skalling Ende. Two bodies of airmen recovered.
		Hampden Mk. I, AD850 presumed crash-landed on the beach between Hvidding and Rejsby. No survivors.
		jh 3/69				