

Date	15/16 May 1942	Service No.	Rank	Name	Duty
Type of Aircraft	Hampden Mk. I	R.67803	Flt. Sgt.	Dillon, R.J.	Pilot	Kr.Vaerløse
Serial No.	AT224	R.70723	Sgt.	Dreyer, R.W.	Nav.	MIA
Squadron	No.408 (Goose) RCAF		Plt. Off.	Cresswell, C.	1st WOp/AG	MIA
Code Letters	EQ :	1105931	Sgt.	Palmer, W.D.	2nd WOp/AG	Tranebjerg Samsø Island
Base	Balderton, Notts.	Diary of Commander-in-Chief of the German Naval Forces in Denm.:
Mission	Mining	Aircraft of unknown type shot down on 16 May at 0153 hours S. of Samsø Island.
Target	Pumpkin in Gr. Belt Sejro-Revsnaes	Report of Mr. Einer Buch at Koldby Kaas who watched two aircraft

Special Remarks:

"An aircraft flying at 1,200 feet on a westerly course passed over a German minesweeper at anchor two nautical miles W. of Vesborg Lighthouse, Samsø Island. Flak from the ship opened up and instantly hit the aircraft which crashed in flames.

Immediately after another low flying aircraft was hit, and this too crashed in sea about one nautical mile W. of the German vessel. A third aircraft was shot at but no results observed.

Hampden Mk. I, AT224 on 16 May presumed hit by Anti-Aircraft fire from German vessel and crashed in sea off Vesborg Lighthouse, Samsø Island.

